9 IN RE:

CASE NO: 3:11-CV-00754-JRS
Class Action

10 GREGORY T. BERRY,

11 Plaintiff,

-vs-

OBJECTION TO FAIRNESS AND NOTICE

12 LEXUS NEXUS RISK
13 INFORMATION ANALYTICS
INCORPORATED,

Hearing Date: August 30, 2013

14 Defendant.

15 _____/

16 As a probable member of this class, and one who only received notice of this hearing in National
17 Geographic Magazine, I hereby object to the fairness of the settlement and the method of notification
18 about it. Please consider my objections for the following reasons:

- 19 1) The notice in the magazine, can not be reasonably expected to be understood by anyone
20 except a lawyer. The call-in phone line does not go to a live human being, but another
21 computer answered phone system. If $5,500,000.00 is to go the counsel, they should be 22 able to afford better.
- 23 2) This appears not to be a bona fide class action, but rather an exercise that is designed to 24 benefit the lawyers in involved.
- 25 3) The public record documents available on PACER are not free, and it would probably 26 cost hundreds of dollars to down load them. This is not reasonable if class members are 27 not to be compensated, which is entirely objectionable.
- 28 4) If the companies which are defending this case did wrong, then they should not be allowed to settle, because the lawyers always say; "Without Admission of Wrongdoing",

1 and it is better for all concerned, ie. the Public, which has been harmed, that they go to
2 trial and be found guilty of wrong doing, for all the world to see.

3 5) The lawyers should not be paid in order to allow the perpetrators hide their wrong doing,
4 on the other hand, if the lawyers who filed this suit did not have reason to do so, and are
5 just trying to exact a settlement, then this too should come out for all the world to see.

6 6) I wish to opt out of this class, but I need to be told where the defendants can be served
7 with suit papers, and the deadline for doing so. If you just mail them the paperwork they
8 simply ignore you. I would also like a copy of the complaint, if possible.

9 7) Finally, I need the name and addresses of counsel in this case entitled to notice, so I can
10 mail this in to them. These were not in the notice, and there is nothing in the law, that
11 I know of, which requires me to own and use a computer in order to protect my rights.

12
13 I thank you for considering my thoughts on this matter, and I appreciate the fact that I have a right to 14 present them.

15 Respectfully submitted this 2nd day of June 2013
